THE NET RESULTS.

SUMMARY OF THE FULL VOTE AT MONDAY'S ELECTION.

All Republican Officers Elected, Except the Mayor, Who Was Knocked Out on Account of "Too Much Smoothy"—The Democrats Get Five Councilmen.

Counting in some of the precincts was kept up until an early hour yesterday, on account of the brutal manner in which Mr. Miles was scratched. The vote was quite heavy, but not near so heavy as on the Presidential election, four weeks ago. The total vote cast Monday was 9833.

The Democrats were perfectly happy yesterday, but the chances are that they had good company in the person of independent Republicans who do not propose to wear the collar of the Los Angeles Color Company.

One old-time Republican said to a TIMES reporter: "This city has reached a stage in its history when office-seekers must keep away from rings and bosses. The very moment Mr. Miles allowed a gang of boodlers to claim him as their own I knew that he was gone. The day of the boss has gone out of date in Los Angeles, and the sooner these men learn that the great through passes will get that fact through their heads the better will it be for them."

Following is the summary, which is as near correct as it can be given before the official count is made by the Council:

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Monthly Report of Superintendent

—Other Business.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held in the Council chamber last evening with President Crawford presiding and the following members present: Messrs. E. P. Johnson, Thomas Kelley, C. W. Day and Emboddy. Acting Superintendent Baker and Assistant Superintendent Averill were also in attendance.

After the reading of the minutes and the transaction of some unimportant business, the Superintendent presented his monthly report, showing the total number of scholars in attendance at 621, with an average attendance of 94 per cent.

A petition was received asking for the use of a schoolhouse for the meeting of a society, which was denied, as it would be setting a bad example, and this was made a general rule.

Mr. Day asked if the children were exercised in the fire drill, so that they were trained to leave the rooms in case of a fire. He said that his attention had been called to the matter by a recent publication in an eastern city, and that it was an important matter, he thought it should be attended to before some great calamity occurred in our midst.

Superintendent Baker said that this was already the rule in all houses of two or more stories, when, on motion, it was ordered that the fire drill be had in all the rooms at least twice a month, and the Superintendent was instructed to see that it was done.

A little incident occurred during the meeting of the board something out of the general run, which caused considerable debate, an' was finally referred to the board as a committee of the whole to consider in executive session at some future time. As near as could be learned, the tenor of the debate was that the board had been informed of a recent publication in an eastern city, that it was an important matter, he thought it should be attended to before some great calamity occurred in our midst.

Superintendent Baker said that this was already the rule in all houses of two or more stories, when, on motion, it was ordered that the fire drill be had in all the rooms at least twice a month, and the Superintendent was instructed to see that it was done.

The Result of a Hair-pulling Between Two Fast Women. The case of Minnie Powelson and Mamie Andrews, a couple of Alameda-street cyprains, for disturbing the peace, came up before Justice King yesterday afternoon. The two got into a fight some days ago and induced the police to call it a disturbance, which was only stopped by the interference of the police, who landed both of them in jail. A number of witnesses were examined, among them being a coal-black negress, very much under the influence of liquor, who had to be threatened with incarceration in the County Jail before she would answer the questions proposed by the District Attorney. The evidence of both of the women are hard cases, and the case was so complicated that after the testimony was all in the Justice took it under consideration, and will give his decision this morning. John Roberts, Esq., represented the defense, and Assistant Attorney Dunlap the people.

FRANK BARTLETT POST.

Election of Officers Last Night in G.A.R. Hall.

Frank Bartlett Post, G.A.R., held its annual election last evening, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

W. J. Brown, Commander; L. A. Ross, Senior Vice-Commander; Sam Kutz, Junior Vice-Commander; P. P. Livermore, Quartermaster; G. W. Weeks, M.D., Surgeon; J. W. Marcellus, Chaplain; E. B. Bailey, Officer of the Day; A. Dorman, Officer of the Guard.

Following are the delegates to the Department Encampment: Delegates—C. Maholm, J. R. Fletcher, George E. Gard, A. Dorman, L. R. Harrison, E. B. Bailey, L. A. Ross, A. L. Cook, C. W. McElveen, Alternates—Dr. G. W. Weeks, Dr. W. E. Reed, P. P. Livermore, J. S. Buskirk, J. W. Marcellus, W. F. Darling, G. F. Coffin, J. Liechte, H. W. Cowles.

Articles of Incorporation. Articles of incorporation were filed yes-terday by the Muscopolis Land and Water Company, who intend to develop, subdivide and sell the rancho Muscopolis in San Bernardino county. The capital is $1,000,000, all subscribed, as follows: Caroline M. Severance, $249,500; Annie C. Severance, $499,500; James S. Severance, $243,700; James O. Seymour, $500; Mark S. Severance, $500. All are directors, and all live at Los Angeles except James S. Severance, who lives at San Francisco. The place of business is to be in Los Angeles, and no railroad is to be constructed or aided without the consent of two-thirds of the stockholders.

TIE AND TRACK.

The Santa Barbara Line—Another Warner Excursion in.

There was nothing new in railroad circles yesterday. It has been stated by several persons and one or two newspapers that there was danger of a strike on the Santa Fe on account of the 10 per cent cut in wages, but there is no truth whatever in the rumor as near as could be learned yesterday.

The San Francisco Call says: "The heavy rains of week before last somewhat retarded the progress of work on the Tempe-leton extension, but the 600 men have already completed a good many miles of grading and track-laying follows apace. The country which is traversed is of a rolling, forested soil, and is densely covered with green oak. Secondly, it is very beautiful. The fertility of the soil renders the building up of quite a large town on the Santa Margarita ranch, the present objective point. The proprietors of the big ranches through which the line passes make no secret of their intention to cut up their holdings in small sections, thus providing for the fair occupants who are to preside over their brilliant contents for the rest of the week. The bright trimmings and bunting set off the balloon in great style, and the picture presented when it was filled with the assembled guests was enlivening in the extreme.

The orchestra occupied the stage and the dancers monopolized the floor from 8 o'clock till midnight. The ball was a success, both in a social and financial point of view, and the fair starts on its career with the prestige of a most auspicious beginning.

The orchestra will play almost everything that the most generous young man can think of to buy for a Christmas present for his girl, and no doubt they will flock thither to purchase in great multitudes.

While those within the city will offer a great deal of local of local success.

Continuing the Call says: "The other survey takes the line, via the sea shore, along the top of the cliffs forming that bulge in the coast line of which Point Conception is the apex. The two most prominent points are to be the coast and the headland.

The first is the coast route, the second the headland. The two routes necessitate a detour of about nine miles; and second, the sacrifice of a good deal of local success.

The two routes will be almost equally expensive, the one being the more difficult to make up, however, as they will be desire to purchase it in a nice place to go to make up their minds as to which to take.

The Fair Opens with a Big Ball—The Various Booths Taking Shape—Visitors Have a High Time—A Grand Success Promised.

The grand Union Fair of the Women's Relief Corps at Armory Hall was inaugurated last evening with a ball which was well attended and passed off with great spirit. The fair itself only goes well under way today, but the hall was all decorated last evening, and the booths trimmed and ready for the fair occupants who are to preside over their brilliant contents for the rest of the week. The bright trimmings and bunting set off the balloon in great style, and the picture presented when it was filled with the assembled guests was enlivening in the extreme.

HOW I SUFFERED

Seventeen years from a Skin Disease Could not walk or dress myself. A mass of disease from head to foot Cured in eight weeks by the Cuticura Remedy.

At the age of three months a rash (which is believed to be eczema or salt rheum) made its appearance on my face. A physician was called. He said teething was the cause: he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the rash increased. The physician was Dr. M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil," and prescribed ginseng, bramstone and lard mixed into a salve; but the rash continued. The doctor said it was nothing with him. Another physician, however, said it was a skin disease. He prescribed foxglove, water and flour; another, iodine poultices. None of them did any good at all. The rash increased and became more and more unbearable; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up entirely, and spent continually sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them. I could not move my head. My mother would have to lift me out and bed into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but could not get my clothes on at all, and could not even get up to wash myself. I had to have my mother help me to wash myself.

When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself. I went to bed with them, and my mother had to wash me every day for years—the effect was so soothing.

In about two weeks I could stand straight, but my walk was weak, but my mother was not very well. As near as I can judge the Cuticura Remedy cured me in about six weeks, and to this day I am in perfect health.

"MORAL FOULNESS IN THE CITY."

[Los Angeles Tribune, Dec. 3.]
The habitual readers of the Tribune will have observed, during the last few days, an apparent change in the policy of this journal—we beg to assure them that the change is only apparent.

"POLITE PEOPLE"—PHEW!

[Id.]
That social disorders of a disgusting nature exist, is what everybody knows; but polite people do not regard them as furnishing proper topics of conversation at the breakfast table, nor in the drawing-room.

A DISCOVERY.

[Id.]
But there are times when it is important that the citizens should know just how matters are going on in the vile places of the city; and one of those times is now.

THE ELECTORS SHOULD BE INFORMED.

[Id.]
Now that the electors are in the very act of appointing a new set of municipal officers, they should be informed of the facts with reference to which they are to proceed in voting.

THEY HAVE TO LOOK TO THE PAPERS.

[Id.]
They can only get those facts from the newspapers. Hence this apparent change of policy on the part of this paper.

"IN A WRETCHED STATE."

[Id.]
The city is in a wretched state, morally, and is rapidly going from bad to worse. In everything pertaining to the police administration, including police protection, there is criminal neglect and general demoralization. There is no effort on the part of the police authorities to reduce the foul and dangerous elements within the bounds of safety and decency.

"THE CALL OF DUTY."

[Id.]
We have answered the call of duty, the last few days, and have published the facts as they really exist. We have no other excuse but that.

THE GIRL HER MILK-PALE.

[Id.]
There will be little need hereafter to display these unsavory matters to such an extent if the people do but elect Hon. D. E. Miles and the rest of the Republican ticket.

THIS VERY MINUTE.

[Id.]
Now is the day and now is the hour.

"IS IT?"

[Id.]
It is not possible—is it?—for any Republican who is just from the poll, where he cast his vote for Gen. Harrison, to return to his poll today and cast his vote for the Democratic candidates.

TOO DREADFUL TO CONTEMPLATE.

[Id.]
We hear Democrats predicting that numbers of Republicans will vote with them on present issues for candidates that are pledged to do what harm they can to the Republican party. We shall not believe it till the votes are counted.

"SHAMEFUL" AND INSANE.

[Id.]
What has any Republican now to gain by contributing to throw this city into the category of towns that have Democratic majorities? It would be shameful in any sane Republican to do that. No sane Republican will, we feel confident, do so unless a thing!

IT MIGHT KNOCK OUT HARRISON.

[Id.]
Let any Republican who inclines to oppose his party at this moment, consider well the step. Los Angeles goes for the Democrats (suppose) today, what then?—what will be the effect on our city Republicans, and possibly on the Administration of Gen. Harrison?

IT WOULD BE H—ARD!

[Id.]
For the majority in this city to apparently change their minds on political questions, and from being gloriously Republican less than a month ago, become traitorously Democratic just on the eve of the inauguration of a Republican President, would be folly unequalled and perfidy unheard of! Almost as perfidious as knifing Barnaby for coin!

HARRISON NOT OUT OF THE WOODS.

[Id.]
Gen. Harrison is strong, and yet he will need all the Repub can support for some time to come that he received on the 6th of November. He will need the vast and wholesome influence of the Republican cities to be still with him.

A FRANTIC APPEAL.

[Id.]
This city is the first to hold an election, after the national election—let it not be the first to turn its back on the President-elect!

WHAT WE WANT AND WANT "BAD."

[Id.]
What this city wants is a Republican mayor, a Republican council, a Republican chief of police, a Republican board of health, a Republican board of fire commissioners and a Republican board of education. The city will get all these and more today.

AND THE OTHER GANG WILL BE LEFT OUT IN THE FRO.

[Id.]
The Democrats cannot carry today's election. The people of this city are deeply interested in its welfare, and they will not again put their affairs into the hands of fossils of the Silurian age.

PRESTO, CHANGE!—NO EXPLANATION.

[From the same, Dec. 4.]
Have we any explanation to offer for this overwhelming Republican defeat? None whatever, at this time. It is always bootless to account, however truthfully, for the defeat of your party until after the sounds of the conflict are hushed.

OWL-LIKE WISDOM.

[Id.]
It is not in the nature of man to appreciate immediately a severe lesson which reflects on anterior judgments on a given situation.

POCO TIEMPO.

[Id.]
Later, all of us may be able to see matters as they were and are.

ANOTHER PREDICTION—"IF."

[Id.]

COLUMBUS, O., is wrestling with the social evil no less earnestly than is Los Angeles.

AFTER the 4th of March Grover can burdened by an encyclopediad. Another proof that the law of compensation holds good.

MR. CLEVELAND'S star of destiny has not yet fully set. Though the Presidency is slipping from his grasp, Harvard has come to the rescue and conferred upon His Cypelency the degree of doctor of laws.

WHAT Los Angeles county now needs to insure her rapid and permanent growth is more articles produced at home, with the result of less money sent out of this section for the purchase of what may just as well be manufactured in our midst.

"THEY" have it now that Quay is to go into the Cabinet "sure and certain,"
and already, in the Quay-state, State
"plans have been mapped out for his successor in the United States Senate." If Quay goes into the Cabinet John Wannamaker will have to keep on selling "cloddings."

KENTUCKY is true to Bourbonism, and there are more mourners within its borders over Cleveland's defeat than in any other State in the Union. A few days ago an officer went insane
with the grief of his disappointment,
and another son of that sacred soil
went out to his barn and hanged himself. What a paradise that State would be for Cleveland's future home?

THE South has given indication of sensibly accepting the result of the recent election in a cheerful spirit, as is evidenced by the cordial invitation sent by Georgia to Gen. Harrison to attend the national exhibition at Atlanta. There will be nothing to foster a partisan spirit in the South under a Republican administration, and that section may yet accept the principle that a broad nationalism is preferable to the narrowness of sectional prejudice.

ONE reason why California will grow more rapidly than the South is because the South has not yet learned to tolerate ideas which differ from those of their political leaders. If the South had even greater advantage of soil and climate than California possesses, she never would compete with the Golden State, because she will not extend to those whom she invites to settle in her midst that perfect political freedom which is guaranteed them by the Constitution, and which is theirs by divine right.

Summary of a Summary Defeat.

The "smoke of battle" having cleared away, a cursory survey of the field of the late municipal contest shows net results which may be described in the following words and figures, to wit:

John Bryson (D.) is elected Mayor;
Charles McFarland (R.) City Attorney;
Len J. Thompson (R.) Tax Collector;
John Fischer (R.) Assessor; M. D.
Johnson (R.) Treasurer; E. P. Johnson
(R.) and A. E. Pomeroy (R.) Members of the Board of Education. The following Councilmen are elected: Charles N. Earl (R.) and George O. Ford (R.)
in the First Ward; Jake Kubits (D.) and Harvey T. D. Wilson (D.) in the Second; Dr. J. H. Bryant (D.) in the Third; A. McNally (D.) and E. R.
Threlkeld (D.) in the Fourth; and A.
C. Shafer (R.) in the Fifth.

The Republicans carried the city
ticket, with the exception of Mayor;
the Democrats elected five and the Republicans three of the new members of the Council, making that body
stand, under the coming reorganization, eleven Democrats to four Republicans.

Mr. Bryson's majority is 800, showing a change of more than two thousand votes within thirty days! "Such is life on the border."

One of the most significant features of the contest was the fact that while the entire Republican city ticket, with the exception of Mayor, was elected by majorities ranging from 121 to 517, nevertheless Miles, the head of the ticket, went down under nearly 900 majority. He is 1377 votes behind the highest candidate on his ticket! Yet he was energetically supported by Mr.
Boyce and the Tribune.

The lesson of the election, so far as individuals is concerned, is obvious.
There is no possible occasion where greater care is required in selecting candidates for party nominations than in local contests, where the personnel of the men on both sides is scanned with a closeness unknown in general elections, where personal knowledge of the candidates is more difficult for the mass of voters to obtain. In local contests men vote with far more independence and discrimination than upon any other occasion, and party lines are very loosely drawn. Thus is the best home government secured.

The Wedge of the Honest Toiler.

The rise of new industries in West Virginia has been one of the many factors which have tended toward making the State Republican. The surest way of extirpating forever the free-trade heresy in the South would be to build up manufactures in that section and encourage industrial pursuits and avocations. The South will not break away from its antepatric tendencies until industrial enterprises
are more general among its people.
The whirr of the spindle and the noise
of the loom, the smoke of the furnace and the sound of the anvil would do as much for southern advancement as the multiplication of schools and universities. Luxury and idleness do not make good Republicans or good citizens. They do not strengthen the morals or the intelligence of a State, nor do they nourish patriots. The spirit of sectionalism will not die out from the hearts of southern men until they become interested in great enterprises, which shall tend to the development of their resources. This will do more toward breaking up "the solid South" than we are likely to find it.

EVEN now Thurman says that he does not despair of ultimate Democratic success. He has visions of a success and by and by, when Democracy
shall rise again from the ashes of defeat to places of trust and power. Faith like this would be sublime if it were not so clearly akin to folly.

THE Chicago Times, not contented
with a $500,000 libel suit on its hands, is hunting for another fight. It recklessly publishes the following:

We might as well say it now as at any time. Females may parade in the inauguration procession at Washington, but there are no ladies there. There is a very wide difference between the female and the lady, as you may have noticed.

THE Chicago Times has a couple of $250,000 libel suits on hand, brought by an elevated railroad company, and the paper is elevated proportionately, and has the horn of its rejoicing up at an angle of forty-five degrees.

We have urgent letters from "Judge E. G. Silence," on the abuses of the International Company of Mexico. We request our correspondent to contain himself, and preserve his identity until we can spit upon the editorial hands.

It is understood that Sir Francis Clercford will be appointed to succeed
Sackville West. The latter, it is said, will be offered a colonial governorship.
He should seek out a colony that is surrounded by a rabbit-proof, anti-Murchison fence.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE OPERA-HOUSE.—Men may come and men may go forever. The fresh voice and the native drollery that won a man a name and a generous salary may fade away and the man be known no more, but the songs, the jokes, the ridiculous monologues,
the burlesques that make up the minstrel unit remain. The Georgia Minstrels, now playing a brief engagement here, have reverted to the old programme, and present an entertainment quite unlike Haverly's big variety show. Their performance needs no apologies, however, being excellent, natural, and with a freshness and real feeling in both the singing and acting that is gratifying. The girls are colored men, not all. There follows, therefore, a heartiness in the fun and a sympathy in the music inseparable from that imitative and melody-loving race. Several of the numbers of the programme are wholly novel, and all well done, especially the French conductor.
A bill should fill the house, and will not be disappointed if they really like minstrelsy and not simply a grotesque variety performance.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 4.—The official canvass of the vote cast at the recent election for Supreme Court Justices was completed in the Secretary of State's office today, and is as follows:

For Chief Justice: Beatty (Rep.), 124,517;

Searls (Dem.), 119,892; Thompson (Pro.),

54,923; scattering, 230. Beatty's plurality, 40,185.

For Associate Justice: Works (Rep.),

123,477; Sullivan (Dem.), 122,974; scattering, 53. Works's plurality, 503.

The sugar trust on trial.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Gen. Roger A.
Pryor, for the people of the State of New York, this morning opened the sugar trust prosecution in the Supreme Court. The particular trust under consideration today
is the North River Sugar Refining Company.

The Attorney-General supplemented Gen.
Pryor's argument. Ex-Chief Justice Dan-ford opened for the defense. He denied that the company had abused its privileges.

The price of sugar had not been increased,

and the arrangement was simply to promote economy, to protect them against the unlawful combines of workmen and give each refinery the benefit of the appliances
of others.

Washington territory's Vote.

PORTLAND (Ore.), Dec. 4.—The official canvass of the vote of Washington Territory gives the total vote cast for John B.

Allen (Rep.), for Congress, 36,391; Charles

S. Voorhees (Dem.), 18,920; Roger S.

Green (Pro.), 1,157. The Legislature stands: House—Republicans 47, Democrats
2, Independents 2; Council—Democrats
11, Democrats 1.

Prominent men indicted.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Dec. 4.—Quite a number of prominent men were recently indicted here for cutting and removing timber from non-national public lands.

Three children burned to death.

LEXINGTON (Ky.), Dec. 4.—A negro woman locked her three children in her house and went visiting. During her absence the house burned to the ground and the children perished.

It is a good deal this way with the sentiment which controls the Prohibition party. It is a sentiment which ignores the principle—unless principle, no matter how strong and sufficient for the restraint of evil, takes the prescribed shape dictated by the party. They profess to be the friends of temperance, but they ignore every friend of temperance who will not work with them and adopt their methods of reform. Give us all we ask for or we will not take anything is the rule

they abide by. When all these fine sentiments deeper into firm principles that shall manifest themselves by deeds rather than noisy utterances, then there will be some hope of reform.

There is a power in sturdy principle that it is hopeless to fight against.

The great trouble with reformers generally is too much theory and too little practice. The supreme need of the American people is not the multiplication of fine sentiments and theories, but the embodiment of fixed principles that shall control party action and crystallize into needed reformation. Fine sentiments are of no earthly account unless we live up to them. They are not current coin until backed by principle. Mere theorists do not give strength to any party. It is deeds and not words that will in the great battle of life, and that make for a political party a strong and immovable foundation.

Mrs. GLADSTONE has made the discovery that some of the youngsters in the party have organized a deep-laid scheme to shelve the g. o. m., and she has accordingly sent him up to London to head off the gang and look after his parliamentary fences. Mrs. G. is a
g. o. w., and don't you let the recollection of the fact get away from your memory.
Get out your trusty riata and lasso the idea.

THE granddaughter of President
Lincoln has been spending a few days in Washington. She gave a reception to some of her young lady friends. On this occasion she wore a walking-dress of dark green cloth, with a vest of tan color, a Gainsborough hat of black,
and a black veil over her animated face.
She is described as a blonde, with large,
blue eyes, and a cordial manner,
which will make her hosts of friends.

THE result of our late Presidential election seems to have the tendency of bringing thoughtful southern men to their senses. The Democratic Mobile Register now appreciates the fact that the South was too presumptuous in regard to tariff reform, and regrets that the Speaker packed the Ways and Means Committee with six southern men of the eight Democratic members.

Glowing Accounts of the San Joaquin Valley Road—Portland Making Vigorous Efforts to Get Bid of Her Highness—Other Pacific Coast News.

By Telegraph to The Times.

Victoria (B. C.), Dec. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] Counsel for G. Hamilton Griffin applied today for a writ of error, argument on it to be held before the full bench.

It is rumored that their contention will be that an American citizen was one of the 12 jurors who convicted Griffin.

RAILWAY NEWS.

Southern Pacific's Great Tunnel—The San Joaquin Valley Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] Great activity is now displayed at the head of operations on the Southern Pacific branch railway extension to Santa Margarita and San Luis Obispo. Numerous ties have been made to the force of late. It now numbers nearly 2000 men. The magnitude of the work is such that it can hardly be completed inside of 18 months, even though the workmen should be kept constantly employed. It has been suggested that the workmen should be given a week off every month, and that the road be hurried to completion by the sinking of shafts down into the middle of the tunnel from the surface and working both ways, thus affording a chance for the employment of four sets of men, but it is not yet known whether or not this plan will be adopted.

THE SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY LINE.

It is stated here that the engineers of the Stockton, Fresno and Southern line, the road which is to be built in opposition to the Southern Pacific in the San Joaquin Valley, are working from Stockton. The resident engineer will be in Fresno soon to fix definitely the points of entrance and exit of the road in that city. The original survey made for the line did not take it through Fresno, but when a survey was made the capitalists behind the scheme have changed their plans, and it will run through the eastern portion of Fresno. The contract for steel rails for the road has been let, and a representative of the company is now in this city to complete the contract for grading the roadbed. The proposed route starts from Fresno to to Centerville, Visalia and Bakersfield, while the F. & F.'s surveyed line near the latter place. There is talk of a northern extension of the line from Stockton to Oakland via Livermore.

Vigorous Measures Against High-binders at Portland, Or.

PORTLAND (Or.), Dec. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The Coroner's inquest over the body of Wah Bing, one of the victims of the Sunday shooting, was concluded today. The verdict was that deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound at the hands of Wong Sing. The latter cannot be found.

Tonight a meeting was held by about 50 leading Chinese merchants and business men. Mayor de Lashmutt and Chief of Police Parish were present. The Chinese merchants agreed to cooperate with the authorities to stamp out high-binders' societies in Portland. Notices will be posted to-morrow throughout Chinatown, notifying all high-binders and societies to leave the city at once. Five days will be allowed. If the societies are not then broken up arrests will be made at once. All such Chinese convicted will be compelled to work on the streets with ball and chain.

A Cattle Company's Curious Methods. HELENA (Mont.), Dec. 4.—At Great Falls today Judge Bach took under advisement the suit brought by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York against the Montana Cattle Company, for alleged breach of the terms of a mortgage. Bonds were issued for $75,000 by the cattle company. The breach is alleged to be failure to keep defendants' herds up to 22,000 head as agreed, failure to pay interest on the bonds, and sales of cattle by which it is asserted the number was diminished.

An Editor Apologizes. VICTORIA (B. C.), Dec. 4.—Managing editor Tempierian of the Times appeared before a full bench, yesterday, charged with contempt by publishing insinuations against Judge Defty. Tempierian claimed that the remarks were written and signed without his knowledge, and said that he would apologize in any manner suggested by the court. After remarks by members of the bench, defendant was discharged on payment of costs and publishing a full retraction and apology.

WHY NOT Exhibit at Paris.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Board of Trade today, the committee which was appointed to go with the Paris Exposition Commissioners reported that had been learned that no part of the $250,000 appropriated by the United States Government for exposition expenses could be used for California. On the strength of this announcement a resolution was adopted that the State Board of Trade declined to take any part in the Paris Exposition.

Heavy Duties Paid. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The largest single payment of duties ever made at this port was paid by the American Sugar Refinery Company today at the custom-house for the import of sugar of the former Westmeath. The cargo amounted to 7,518,960 pounds, requiring a duty of $144,354. The payment was in double eagles of standard weight.

Twenty Years for Two Murders. WALLA WALLA (Wash.), Dec. 4.—In the District Court this morning Enno Bley, convicted of murder in the second degree for killing Carl Moritz at Washburna Lake, July 22d, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment. On the charge of the murder of Peter Moritz, at the same time, Bley pleaded guilty to manslaughter and was sentenced to six years' imprisonment.

Murderer Captured.

WALLA WALLA (Wash.), Dec. 4.—Marshal Robinson arrested Williams, charged with the murder of two miners at Wood River, Idaho, in 1886. Williams was a deserter from the United States Army at Ft. Sherman, Idaho, in the early part of 1886, and on trial was sentenced to serve six years in Alcatraz, but escaped from the guardhouse.

Stanford Going to San Diego. SAN DIEGO, Dec. 4.—Senator Leland Stanford replies to a telegraphic invitation from General Manager Turrell of our Chamber of Commerce that he will visit this city on Thursday to meet the business men before going to Washington.

A PLEA FOR THE COAST.

Harrison Urged to Give It a Member of His Cabinet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The Executive Committee of the State Board of Trade issued a memorial, addressed to Gen. Harrison, today, asking him to select one of the members of his Cabinet from the Pacific Coast. The memorial of the Board of Trade, which is lengthy, says:

"We respectfully submit that the bestowal of a Cabinet position on a citizen of our section as a recognition of our interests, stimulus to our patriotism and concession to our influence in a half century, is an immoderate share of welcome at the national board."

"Resolved, that the Senators and Representatives in Congress of the States of California, Oregon and Nevada be most respectfully requested to forward the foregoing memorial to the President-elect, with such reinforcement of request or petition as in their judgment will be most effective."

"Resolved, that this board has no personal choice among aspirants for positions in the Cabinet of the President-elect, but that, in presenting the above memorial it is unani-

"mated solely by a desire of securing to the Pacific Coast section of the United States representation in the highest and most important political council of the Nation a fair and due consideration in the exercise of departmental government, which in later years has witnessed such an expansion and growth."

TIES ON THE TRACK.

An Attempt Made to Wreck a Passenger Train.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] A bold attempt was made to wreck the south-bound Oregon express, which was due here at 3:35 this morning. Several ties were laid across the track, and one of the rails had been pried off after the spikes holding it had first been removed.

The scene of the attempted wreck was just around the curve where the road comes into this city from the American River bridge, and the only thing that prevented a wreck was the fact that a freight, which was moving slowly, struck the obstructions first a short time before the Oregon express came thither along.

The wreckers had placed torpedoes on the track, and the explosions led the engineer of the freight train to slow up and feel his way more carefully. At that early hour all the express passengers are usually asleep, and the loss of life would have been great.

THE KENTUCK MINE.

Its Stockholders Think They Have Been Defrauded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] Ex-Gov. C. C. Stevenson of Nevada and Wiles L. Palmer were on trial before Superior Judge Wallace today, charged with defrauding the stockholders of the Kentuck Mine, on the Gold Hill ledge, out of $350,000.

The suits were brought in the name of the stockholders by Washington Smith, who alleges that Stevenson, Palmer and several others formed a combination to obtain control of the mine, after which they elected their own officers, making Stevenson superintendent; that while acting in this capacity the latter obtained a contract to reduce the mine's ore at the Douglas mine, which was then in operation, at a price of $2.50 per ton above the ordinary charge for milling; that in this manner he defrauded the company out of over $60,000. In addition thereto, it is alleged that Stevenson made way with ore from the mine to the amount of half a million dollars.

Granted a New Trial.

PORTLAND (Or.), Dec. 4.—A mandate of the Supreme Court granting new trials to Chee Fong and Fong Long Yick, convicted and sentenced to death with Chung Ling for the murder of Lee Yick in the Chinese theater November 6, 1887, was entered in the Criminal Court today.

WOMAN AND HOME.

THE HOME, AND PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY.

The Tomorrows of All Time—Parental Obligations—Fashionable Frivolity—Business Absorption—Living Apart, Divided Through a Diversity of Interests.

One fault in many homes, I think, is that the inmates live too much apart. Not but that there may be pleasant, daily, social intercourse between those constituting the family circle, but this isolation consists in the fact that the conversation is, if I may so express it, all of a surface nature, and there is nothing that touches the true inner life. It is the trite of the day that are dwelt upon, the minute concerns of life that come under daily conversation that are most usually taken as topics of conversation. A lady, with whom I have enjoyed the most intimate and confidential friendship, once said to me: "My husband really knows nothing about me. We do not have on the average two hours' conversation in the course of a whole week, and when we do talk it is of things that never call forth my best thoughts or sentiments. He is a man of business, and his business absorbs all of his thoughts. No one can realize the utter loneliness of soul that I experience; the hunger for companionship, the lack of sympathy that I am conscious of. Yet my husband does not intend to be unkink. I have not the slightest idea that he ever considers how, in his unremitting devotion to business, he is robbing his family of that companionship which they have a right to expect from him, and which they need to round out the happiness of their lives."

How many fathers are there who, like this man, are losing sight of the best sources of earthly happiness—the love and sympathy of wife and children, and who are drifting into the sordid and selfish ruts of business absorption.

Perhaps, for some men, business success is more than everything else, and is sufficient to satisfy them. But let me ask such men how they propose to cancel their obligations to their family? Is the true wife, who loves her husband, satisfied with a new dress and costly jewels when she feels that she must go out from her home to find intellectual companionship, full appreciation and sympathy? Is there anything so lonely in the great social universe as the wife standing by the side of a husband who has no thought beyond his business interests, no word of sympathy for her hopes and aspirations, and who lives apart from her in world of his own? Is there any broader gate to temptation than that open to the man who loves his family, yet who has a wife who lives a life devoted to frivolity, and who would be less pained by the lack of sympathy in her husband than she would be to miss an evening at a fashionable party?

The obligations of family life are serious obligations. We may ignore them and lose sight of their importance, but sooner or later we must face the responsibilities which they bring and give answer how the duties resting upon us have been fulfilled. We may run away from duty, but we cannot escape the penalty for so doing. We may shut our eyes to these sacred every-day responsibilities, but we cannot turn our back to the Judge who will one long demand the reason of our blindness.

I pity the man who takes no time from his business life for the pleasant amenities and sacred joys of the home circle, who never lends a sympathetic ear to his wife in the nobler aspirations of her true womanhood; who never studies the bent of his children's minds, and who devotes no time to their mental and moral training. I pity the man who has a wife to whom the pleasures of fashionable society are dearer than the home, and who is willing to leave the care of her little ones largely to nurses and hirelings. Down through coming generations the results of parental neglect must reach, and it will cry out aloud from degenerated descendants, the awful weight of wrong continually increasing with the ever-lengthening years. The tomorrows of all time will witness against us if we allow the business or the pleasures of life to militate against parental duties and obligations.

NOTES.

Always grease the bars of the gridiron before broiling with it.

Salt mackerel should be soaked in milk all night before cooking.

Boiled rice, eaten warm with sugar, butter and nutmeg is often a pleasant dessert.

The proper way to eat oranges is to cut them in two and scoop the pulp with a spoon.

Cream toast is an appetizing and economical supper dish, as it uses up stray slices of bread.

Curry is pepper seven times intensified, and is used by French cooks to season games, fish, etc.

Boiled cabbage should be drained in a colander 15 minutes, and then put in the oven for five minutes to heat again.

Boiled meat is much more juicy and sweet if it is allowed to cool cold in the water in which it was cooked.

Green tomatoes cut in half and put down in brine make a very acceptable substitute for genuine cucumber pickles.

Sweet potato pie, in which sweet potatoes take the place of pumpkin or squash, is a southern delicacy not properly appreciated nowadays.

Steamed chicken is made better by being served on toast, or make a pan of biscuit, break them apart, hot, and pour the gravy over them.

Ice Pudding—Make a custard with a pint and a half of milk, one whole egg and the yolks of four others, and a quarter of a pound of sugar; when cold, add half a glass of brandy, a glass of maraschino, an ounce of citron, cut fine, a quarter of a pound of dried fruits, and an ounce of pistachio nuts, the fruits being cut up in small pieces, the pistachio nuts blanched and split; mix well; and, lastly, add half a pint of whipped cream. When well frozen, pack into a pudding mold, and bury in ice and salt till wanted.

Tarts are easily made by rolling out ordinary pie crust quite thin and cutting it with a round cookie cutter. Then in half the number made, cut four small holes; a thimble is the best thing for the purpose, and bake in pie tins. They are then ready for the filling of jelly or marmalade, and this is simply done. Take a plain piece of the baked crust, which forms the under part of the tart, cover it thickly with jelly or marmalade, and place upon it a piece of crust in which the holes have been cut before baking. A plate of these tarts is a welcome addition to any table.

THE COURTS.

DOINGS IN THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF JUSTICE.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT. William Bernbauer brings suit in equity against Charles E. Branscom, for an injunction to restrain Branscom from the 20-acre lot No. 29 of the Central California Colony tract. Bernbauer's title descends from W. S. Chapman, the original patentee, through the defendant, Branscom and one S. B. Pratt. Branscom's conveyance to Pratt was never recorded, thus making a defect in the title of Bernbauer. Branscom being a seafaring man, sailed long ago for parts unknown and has never returned, and the relator asks the court to take steps to make his title good.
